Farm Credit Services of America

Why Farm Credit Services of America partners with Bellevue University to offer valuable education services.

“We began our partnership with Bellevue University in 2018 because we appreciate their career-relevant education and added tuition benefits. Our tuition assistance program is one important way we invest in our employees and Bellevue University’s support helps lighten the financial load for our teammates.

Since then, more employees have used our tuition assistance program. Bellevue University offers a wide variety of programs geared toward working adults. Our employees enjoy the flexibility of online learning and the support from University faculty and staff. We appreciate having an education partner with vast experience in serving the learning needs of adults.

Our partnership helps us enhance our culture of continuous learning. It’s a win-win for our teammates and our organization. Our employees access education that sets them up for success in their careers. Our organization benefits from a highly skilled, agile workforce that is growing expertise.”
